

BIBA NOTES

Board notes:

The board has been working feverishly on its 2011 Planning Session—stay tuned for what the results are!

We will be doing the monthly newsletters again...to better inform you folks of what is going on.

Independent Business Alliances®
for vibrant, healthy local independent businesses

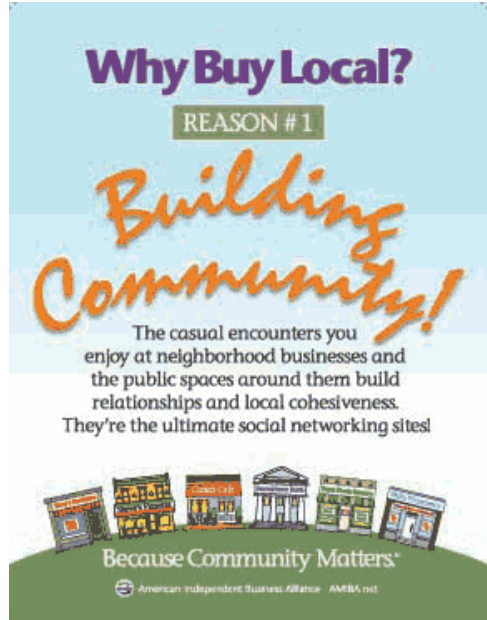

Meet-N-Greet

Tuesday February 22nd,
from 6pm—8pm

Come meet the folks at Burrrito Me and see some of the great offerings they have!

9 Veterans Square, Laconia

Member notes

Kevin Sperl writes:

This Friday is the inaugural Cabin Fever Festival. The dine-around starts/ends at the Belknap Mill. The walk thru down town Laconia stops at The Soda Shoppe, Hectors, Black Cat, Burrrito Me, Village Bakery and Awakenings. There is also an included Sock Hop with Annie and the Orphans at the Mill. Total price is $10 for adults, $5 for kids.

We have tour guides that will lead groups, leaving every 20 minutes from 5 till 7 on the food tour. We also have fire pits at each of the dining locations.

We are still on need of a few organizations/businesses willing to take responsibility for one of the fire pits. This requires adult supervision (and signing of the fire permit) from around 4:30 till after 7 when the last group passes by.

We are selling 300 tickets and they are going fast. We anticipate being sold out. The event provides some nice visibility for the fire pit sponsor who is invited to hand out info to the groups.

Thanks in advance. Kevin kjsperl@lakesregionspirit.com

Always check us out online for members, BIBA card info, upcoming events—meeting dates, etc!!

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.

Questions or comments? E-mail us at info@bibanh.org or call 603-528-8541